Movie buffs will have an entertaining variety of dramas, documentaries, comedies, historical films and shorts to choose from at the 2023 Jewish Film Festival, happening now through Thursday, May 25 at the Milton & Betty Katz JCC and the Ventnor Square Theatre.

“We wanted to offer a variety of films and content that would appeal to people from all walks of life throughout the community,” said Brian Adler, associate executive director of the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Community Campus. “We want people to laugh, cry, sigh and just enjoy this rich tapestry of work that has been assembled by the selection committee. The result is an array of films that vary in length, genre and content, including several films that celebrate Israel’s 75th anniversary. We invite everyone to come out and experience the passion that these films express.”

The festival is underwritten by the Atlantic County Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs, a partner of the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, and sponsored by Roth-Goldsteins’ Memorial Chapel LLC. Many of the screenings will include question-and-answer opportunities, presentations and talkbacks. Individual, series and patron tickets and packages are available for purchase at jccatlantic.org.
